Tour of Falkirk & The Kelpies

AVERAGE TIME TO COMPLETE: 1.5 Hours

DIFFICULTY LEVEL: ■ □ □ Short and fairly flat

THE ROUTE

This tour of Falkirk's surroundings takes in some of the most iconic landmarks in the area. Starting at Callendar Park, you'll follow the John Muir Way past the impressive Callendar House before climbing through the huge trees of Callendar Wood to reach the Union Canal.

Peeling off the canal (and leaving the John Muir Way), make your way to Westquarter Glen and pause at its peaceful waterfall before passing Falkirk Stadium on your way to the Helix with its famous Kelpies.

After a tour of the giant sculptures and perhaps an indulgence in the café, you'll pick up the Forth & Clyde Canal as far as Rosebank Distillery.

A relaxed meander along Falkirk High St (and some well-earned refreshment in its selection of cafes and bistros) takes you back towards Callendar Park to complete the tour.

TERRAIN

Most of this route follows cycling and walking paths on either tarmac or well surfaced canal towpath. The section through Falkirk and back to Callendar Park is on roads and the pedestrianised High St. The only challenging gradient is the initial rise out of Callendar park but most of the route is fairly flat.
